Memories From Our Treasure Chest

Golly, it hardly seems possible that it was almost four years ago we began our exciting years of high school education at West High. As freshmen, the first thing we learned was not to ask upperclassmen for directions because we were sure to be late for our next class. Jim Anderson and Bob Lesmerises made the football squad, while Pat Callahan, Jeffy Hoitt, Michelene Wenzel, Maureen Cassidy, Dotty Patsas, and Elaine Bienvenue were selected for J. V. Cheerleading. Later Michelene Wenzel, and Dotty Patsas were chosen for the varsity squad.

The eager enthusiasm of our class was clearly shown when we aided in the Booster Drive.

Along with the spirit of Christmas came the traditional Christmas Assembly and play, in which Flora Kurtz and Jan Van Loan participated, and Dotty Patsas offered the monologue, "The Bell"; the Christmas semi-formal Winter Wonderland was sponsored by the F.T.A.

Later in the winter, the Foreign Language Club Show was presented, with many classmates participating.

The Players presented You Can't Take It With You with a limited cast, since the new addition was being built and we had to comply with fire regulations. All year long we heard the buzzing of saws and pounding of hammers, and we don't imagine that many will forget those noisy periods in that "frigid zone" 36S.

Dotty was the only cheerleader representing our class in the annual fashion show Once Upon A Fashion which was held in the spring.

Spring—it seemed as if Spring would never come that year. However, along with the new season came honors to Brooks Foster and Bob Richardson in receiving their letters. The spring brought scholastic honors to Flora Kurtz, Pat Callahan, and Ronald Fox who scored in the top 10% of a nationwide test. The year was incomplete without West Week, during which the Student Council presented The Long Grey Line, a Jazz Show, Hayride, and other interesting events.

Our freshman year went by quickly and we were busy every moment of the year, but even with all the fun we had, we looked forward to our summer vacation and sophomore year.

Next year we returned as sophomores and were giving helpful suggestions to lost freshmen, such as, "The up elevator at the south stairs will take you to the fourth floor swimming pool." However, although the periods were shorter, the homework increased, and we spent much of our time doing homework. We remember the Thanksgiving Assembly, with Governor Powell as the guest speaker, as one of the highlights of the year.

Early in December the hilarious comedy Charley's Aunt was presented by our thespians, who had changed their name to Theatre Knights. Then Christmas time arrived, and we had our assembly with the Glee Club, the Band, and various students, including Colleen Long, performing in the talent show. During the Christmas vacation the F.T.A. sponsored the semi-formal Snow Flake Serenade.

We returned ready for the new year, and the month of January passed almost without our noticing it. February arrived, and we found ourselves busily engaged in soliciting patrons for our Booster Drive and succeeded in collecting the largest sum for the second year in succession.

When the cheerleaders presented Fashionville, U.S.A. in April, Dotty Patsas and Michelene Wenzel took part, and Kathy Ashburner was added to the squad later in the year.

The F.T.A. sponsored the talented Plymouth Choir that spring, and the choir was followed by our own band and glee club in a concert. As our sophomore year ended, we were all eager for summer vacation, but many of us were thinking ahead to next year when we would be "upperclassmen."

Our class was organized in our junior year, and we elected the following officers: President, Gordon Pow; Vice-President, Jan Van Loan; Secretary, Michelene Wenzel; and Treasurer, Pat Callahan, with Mr. Hughes as our Class Adviser. The Steering Committee consisted of Kathy Ashburner, Charlie Brocato, Bev Pollock, Bob Richardson, Elaine Dwire, Ronnie Fox, Flora Kurtz, Kenny McHugh, Bill Tucker, Cheryl Healy, Don Givens, and Jeanette Scotland.

At our Christmas assembly the Glee Club and band performed for Reverend Files, our guest speaker, who was leaving for Alaska, and for the faculty and student body. During the vacation many of us attended Mr. Boland's semi-formal.

January brought My Three Angels with our own two stars, Flora Kurtz and Colleen Long. The class ring became the center of conversation as members of the faculty and student body including Jeanette Scotland, and Gordon Pow selected the standard ring for West High School.

During April West Week was sponsored by the Student Council. It was an exciting time with a talent show and basketball games featuring girls who revived themselves with oranges.

Student Council elections, which were held the following month, resulted in the following choices: President, Bill Tucker; Vice-President, Russ Morey; Secretary, Laraine Montminy; Treasurer, Maureen Cassidy.

Spring was the time for fashions as Dotty Patsas, Michelene Wenzel, and Kathy Ashburner showed us in May Sea Side Serenade. May was also the month when seventeen members were inducted into the National Honor Society.

The West High Band Concert, in which the Glee Club played a prominent part, was also held in May.

Kathy Ashburner, Sandra Wenzel, Jeanette Scotland, Cheryl Healy, Mary DeLamarter, and Pat Callahan attended Granite Girls' State, while Bob Barry represented West at the Profile Boys' State.

As the year drew to a close, there was excitement in the air. The Junior Prom, Wonderland by Night, was held in a beautifully decorated gym. The couples drifted through the dimly lighted portals and danced to the music of Kurt Wenzel's Orchestra. Judy Collins was chosen Junior Prom Queen. It certainly was a beautiful night, which we will always remember as an enchanted evening. Now the most exciting year lay before us.

The summer flew by bringing closer our Senior year. The first day we were eagerly renewing acquaintances, while the traffic squad was busy helping confused freshmen and directing other traffic. However, it wasn't long before we settled down and began to work.

The first thing we did was to choose Miss Caswell as a new Class Adviser, since Mr. Hughes was on leave of absence.

Gordon Pow, Jan Van Loan, Michelene Wenzel, and Pat Callahan were all re-elected to their respective offices. We were able to sponsor successfully the record hop Senior Kick Off Hop with the memorable gimmick, "Come and Get a Quarter-back." After that dance we formed various committees to prepare for our reception and graduation.

We will long remember the excitement of the fall when our football team was victorious over Bishop Gibbons of Schenectady, N. Y., and, best of all, for the first time, over our old rivals Central. It was a thrilling game in which we saw Randy Bales (co-captain) Gordon Pow, Don Givens, John Gianitsis, and Jim Anderson make history by defeating Central 22-6. A parade, which held up traffic for blocks, was staged and a Victory Dance was held later that night.

While the boys were busy winning, Flora Kurtz, Colleen Long, Charles Brocato, and other members of the Theatre Knights were diligently rehearsing The Curious Savage, which they presented in December.

It wasn't long before the spirit of Christmas permeated the halls of West High, and we realized the holidays had arrived. After a week filled with skiing and Christmas Dances, we returned to school knowing it was only a few more months until graduation.

At the Winter Carnival our class was proud of Alan Goedecke who came in first in a Ski event, and of Judy Collins the Carnival Queen.

Meanwhile our basketball team with Moe Pow, as captain, and Jan Van Loan and Lou Mailhot as teammates, played credible ball and qualified for the tournament.

Since Spring was just around the corner, all the Reception Committees increased their activities, and with an underwater setting; our theme for the Reception and Graduation, "A Treasure Chest of Memories," was chosen.

Charles Brocato, John Gianitsis, Robert Lesmerises and other members of the cast did an excellent job in the March presentation of that ridiculous farce Girl Crazy.

West Week was an exciting one with Mr. and Miss West elections, the choosing of a student principal, and a talent show.

In April Michelene Wenzel, Cheryl Healy, Jeanette Scotland, Bettejane Parfit, Randy Bales, Charles Brocato, Dick Hanel, and Dennis Brown represented our class at the All State Musical Festival.

Soon April vacation came and some students from the P.O.D. classes enjoyed a trip to Washington, D.C. Upon returning, we found the Reception next on the docket. Only by the dint of hard and constant work were we able to render it an affair worthy to be included in this treasure chest.

By the time The Dance was at hand, there was a great deal of excitement in the air (also our first orbital astronaut). The pleasurable night in June enthralled us as we danced amid underwater scenes of sunken ships and hidden treasures. Then, before we could blink, graduation had arrived. As we listened to the speeches of our Valedictorian, Bill Tucker, and Salutatorian, Jan Van Loan, we realized the importance of our future careers. The 15th of June we say good bye to the scene of the happy memories of these past four years, our Alma Mater, West High School.
